Commuting to work despite curfew

Dear all,

police and other law enforcing units are strictly monitoring the compliance with the curfew imposed on the state of Tyrol.

In order to avoid complications and fines when commuting to and from your place of work be advised to

- carry your Tirol Kliniken ID (official information from the Tyrolean police headquarters)

or

- carry your University ID
- and
- the form proving that you are following a system critical occupation at the Medical University
