

Tenure Track Position according to § 99 (5) Universities Act for Experimental Plastic Surgery

at the University Hospital for Plastic, Reconstructive and Aesthetic Surgery of the Medical University of Innsbruck (full-time position)

The Medical University of Innsbruck, located in the heart of the Austrian Alps, is the largest and most important medical research and education facility in the West of Austria. We currently teach and train over 3,600 students in seven Bachelor-, Master- and Doctoral Programs, most of them in medicine. A dedicated staff of more than 2,200 employees covers all relevant fields from basic research to clinical sciences.

The successful applicant initially concludes an employment contract for a fixed term of six years and, following a positive outcome of the procedure, a qualification agreement. Once it has been established that the qualification agreement has been fulfilled on the basis of a positive evaluation, the contract is converted into an employment contract for an indefinite period.

Your profile

Requirements:

- PhD or comparable qualification
- excellent research and publication activity
- experience in the conception, acquisition and management of third-party funded research projects
- Academic teaching experience as well as the willingness to get involved in teaching activities and their further development
- willingness to participate in interdisciplinary and translationally oriented research
- potential to head an independent scientific research group
- experience with tissue analysis techniques and the establishment of 3D cell culture models
- experience with molecular biological and immunological techniques

Your main task:

- Academic teaching and supervising students within the different university programs
- the establishment of a research group in the field of translational research on chronic wound healing in humans
- acquisition and management of nationally and internationally funded research projects
